Lennart (3) zu seiner Mutter:

"Du bist die liebste Mama auf der ganzen Welt."

Sein Vater: "Und was bin ich?"

"Du bist Fliesenleger."
